Book Report Projects That You Can Choose:

1. Make a diorama of an important scene in the book.
2. Construct a mobile representative of the book or some part of it.
3. Draw a picture of the main character, and write a paragraph about that person.
4. Cut out words from the newspaper and/or magazine for a word collage which gives a feeling for the book.
5. Use stitching or liquid embroidery to make a wall hanging or decorate a T-shirt with art related to the story.
6. Draw a coat of arms for a character(s) and explain the significance of each symbol.
7. Draw a silhouette of a person, scene, or object from the book.
8. Design a new dust jacket cover for the book.
9. Illustrate what you believe is the most important idea or scene from the book.
10. Make a poster advertising the book.
11. Make a time line of the 5 most important events in the book. (What happened 1st, 2nd, 3rd etc.?)
12. Make a roll movie of the book which can be shown on a T.V. set made from a box, using your own illustrations, photographs, or pictures cut from magazines.
13. Retell the story using a flannel board. Create characters, and scenes to place on the flannel board.
14. Identify the important places in the book on a map of your own making.
15. Make paper dolls and clothes of the main character(s).
16. Make a travel poster inviting tourists to visit the setting of the book.
17. Construct a scene or character out of clay, play dough, or salt dough.
18. Design a costume for one of the characters in the book and act the part for the class. (Tell about a part of the book, as the main character.)
19. Videotape a dramatized scene from the book.
20. Write a song which tells about the book.
21. Prepare and give a "Sales Pitch" to give that will get listeners interested in the book.
22. Collect and display a collage of quotes that you like from the book.
23. Make a board game using characters and elements from the book. Have pitfalls (lose a turn, etc.) and rewards (roll again, etc.) reflecting parts of the book.
24. Write a letter to the author, particularly if you enjoyed the book or have a question. (Send the letter to the publisher of the book and it will be forwarded).
25. Write a simplified version of the story in picture book form.
26. Other...(if you have another idea, get it approved by the teacher, and have fun!)

We will be happy to provide any materials that we have at school for you to use for your book report project.