February Book Report

Directions: Choose a chapter book you have been reading at school or home. Fill in the information about your book inside the heart and then color and cut out the heart. Remember, your work needs to be neat, informative, and colorful. DUE FEB. 19th (Tuesday)

Name ______________________

I LOVED the book ______________________.

Here is a summary of what happened: ____________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

I think you should read this book because ________________

____________________________________________________________________________

Here is a picture of the best part: